MUST-HAVE

Add a touch of tweed to your look with a sweet headband. From Louis Vuitton, the hair accoutrement has schoolgirl charm—plus, the pre-tied bow makes it easy to slip on. It's a fresh way to get in on the burgeoning menswear trend.

Prim Pieces

Loeffler Randall's cute flats and just-rugged-enough boots have earned designer Jessie Randall a CFDA nomination. Now she's taking on ready-to-wear. Says Randall, "The attitude of the clothing is young, fashion forward, and chic."

Loeffler Randall dress, $375, and shoe, $375. Neiman Marcus.

TOP THREE:

Print Dresses

While it's never easy to see warm days go, the transition to fall is a lot smoother with a perky patterned frock. The simple graphic pieces were all over the runways. Wear them with bare legs when the mercury is high, and layer up with tights and tees when the cold sets in.

New Names to Know

ELIJAH Designer Keryn Dizon proves a tank top can be elegant with her new line, Elijah. Each top and dress in the New Yorker's collection is pleated, twisted, or draped for a sophisticated effect.

BLUMENFELD L.A.-based Alison Blumenfeld started making tees after endless hurts for the perfect cut. She's onto something great. Her satiny pieces blend polish and cool and are worth the splurge. ■
